Lot 59 – Fine Wines

Auxey-Duresses 1er Cru "Les Duresses" 2015 Domaine Dicomme

In the heart of the Côte de Beaune, along the Route des Grands Crus lies the appellation Auxey-Duresses located just west of Meursault. The wine, from one of the top 3 vintages of this century, is deep coloured, with notes of cherry and raspberry.

Cloudy Bay Chardonnay 2021. Marlborough

Cloudy Bay are one of New Zealand's most celebrated producers. They've been crafting world-class wines for almost 50 years – and while their famous Sauvignon often grabs the headlines, this elegant Chardonnay is deserving of equal attention. Its rounded texture makes it incredibly food-friendly – enjoy with seafood, cheese, or any dish made with a creamy sauce.

Brachetto d'Acqui, "Braidia" 2023

From the celebrated Piedmont area of Italy, this wine is a beautiful, light (5.5% alc) and lightly fizzy. Semi-sparkling and slightly sweet it is simply incredibly moreish. I first tried this in New Orleans many years ago and it has become a firm favourite. It just exudes strawberry and redcurrant fruits.

Lot 60 – Fine Wines

Santenay 1er Cru Le Beaurepaire 2016 Domaine Jean-Marc Vincent

Santenay, located adjacent to Chassagne Montrachet, is the most southerly domain of the. Cote de Beaune. Very smooth and polished, light body, fine light tannins, easy drinking. Anne-Marie and Jean-Marc Vincent are rising stars in Santenay.

Duckhorn Chardonnay 2021 Napa Valley

Duckhorn Vineyards was one of the first forty wineries established in Napa Valley, home to some of the very best new world wines. This is a complex, textured white with the subtle vanilla overtones of French oak. It's a sumptuous wine that will elevate a simple roast chicken to something really special.

Verizet, Crémant de Bourgogne Brut, Cave de Vire

The quality of French crémant has hugely improved in recent years. This is a dry, crisp, sparkling wine, full and flavoursome with good champagne-like character, soft citrus fruits and yeasty hints. From an excellent quality minded co-operative in southern Burgundy.
